

I am outraged at
Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.
This action is a
clear example of the need for many independent media
and the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when
large companies
control the
airwaves, there is less democracy.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. Please take note. Thank you.
